Directions to Rangala House from Dambulla

The journey from Dambulla to Rangala House takes about 2¾ hours

- Leave Dambulla on the A9 main road towards Kandy.
- After the town of Matale, take the left branch towards Wattegama
- After Wattegama, come to the next small town of Madawala. In the middle of this town, turn LEFT signposted to Digana
- In Digana town, join the main A26 road and travel towards Teldeniya (This town is called Karaliadde on some maps)
- Immediately after Teldeniya, turn LEFT for Udispattuwa / Rangala. This turning is less than 1KM after leaving Teldeniya town. It is signposted to Udispattuwa and 'Finlay's Estate'. (The sign itself is on the right hand side where you can also see part of Victoria Lake)
- In Udispattuwa, branch left at the white Buddhist temple
- Keep going past Rangala Police Station
- Carry on for approx 10 mins
- Look for the signs: Duckwari Tea Estate / James Finlay
- Rangala House is about 200M further on the left side. It is clearly signed.
- Rangala House is not in Rangala town, which lies another 15 minutes up the road. Don't go too far!

There is ample on-road parking. A lockable garage is usually available (no extra charge)
